

SALES BY LOCAL GROUPS POLICY

The Ellenville Public Library & Museum will display posters for local non-profit groups, but will not sell tickets or collect funds for any outside agency or group.

Local area non-political and non-profit groups of cultural and/or educational significance may be granted permission, by the Director or Designee, to set up a table and sell items and tickets for an event for one day during library hours and provided that such a sale is compatible with regular library activities.

Permission requests must be received by the Director or Designee no later than two (2) week in advance of the proposed date of the sale.
