

Libraries that are interested in promoting and sharing their online classes and events across a wider platform are all invited to use the FindNYCulture.org website, which was created by the Office of Cultural Education. Sharing these events statewide could help to extend access to online story times, book chats, and lectures across the state.

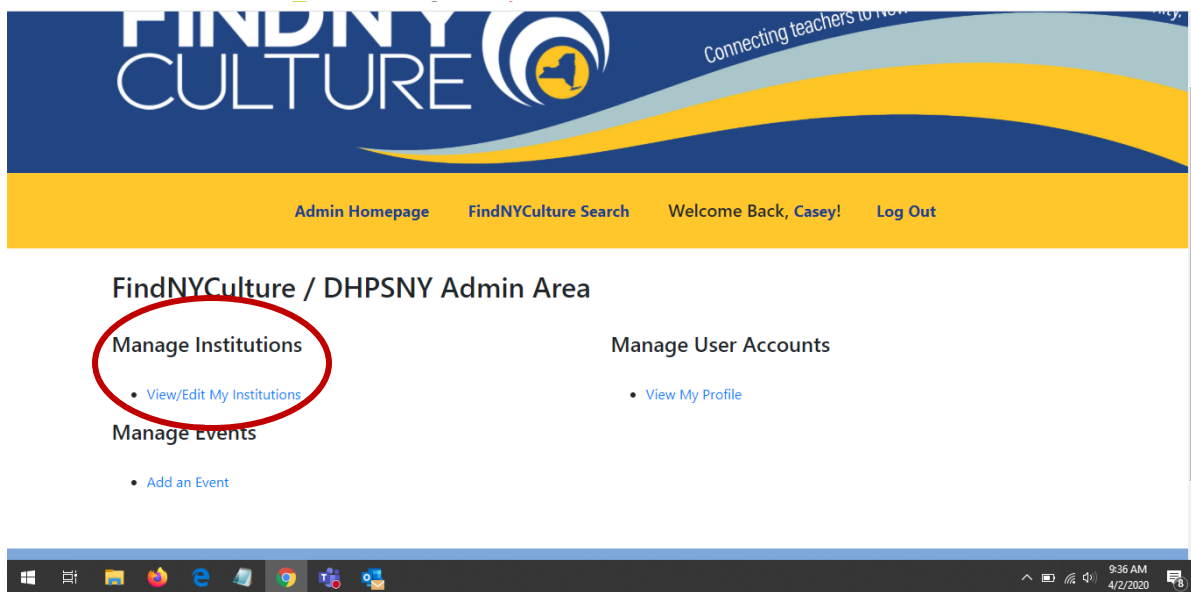

To receive login information for your profile, please send an email to info@findnyculture.org

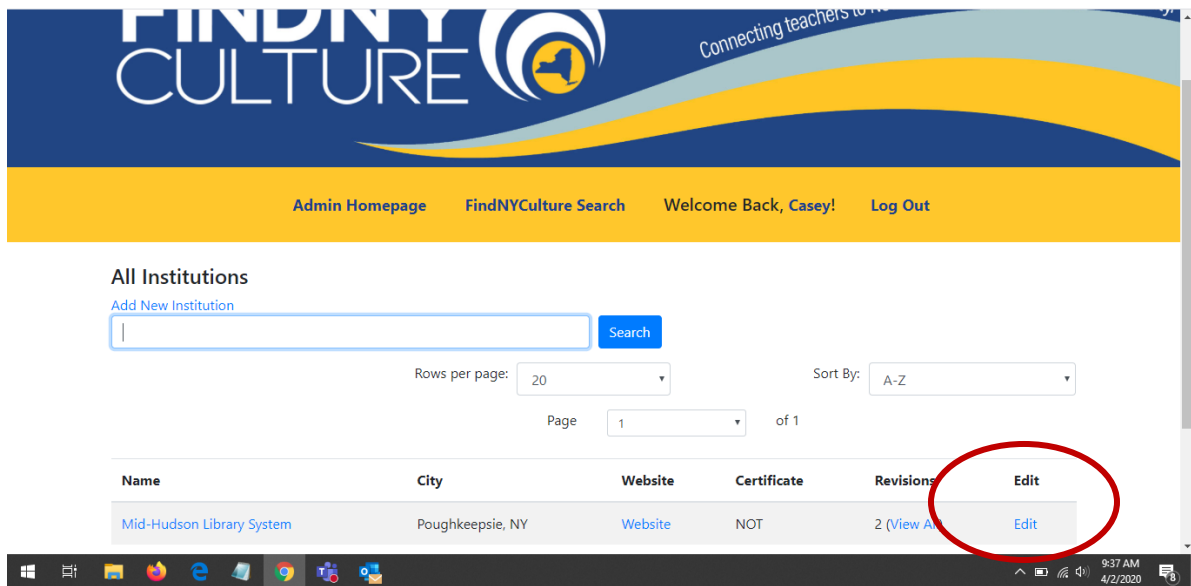

Once you receive your login information visit <http://findnyculture.org/> and choose Organization Login

Login with your assigned email and password.

Once logged in choose View/Edit My Institutions under Manage Institutions.

Select the Edit link in the far-right column. From here you can edit the fields and make selections (this is vital and will help users connect to your educational programs).
