RAMAPO CATSKILL LIBRARY SYSTEM

The Ramapo Catskill Library System (RCLS) is a non-profit, cooperative public library system chartered in 1959 by the New York State Board of Regents. Working cooperatively with its member libraries across four counties,

The Ramapo Catskill Library System serves 47 chartered public libraries in urban, suburban and rural settings encompassing a total of 2,459 square miles with a population of 803,351.

COORDINATED SERVICES

RCLS helps save local funds by offering member libraries coordinated and consolidated services, centralized automation services, training and support for member library trustees and staff to help sustain their effort to be responsive, proactive, vital community institutions that meet the changing needs of the communities in Orange, Rockland, Sullivan and southern Ulster counties.

DIGITAL RESOURCES

In partnership with the RCLS Central Library (Newburgh Free Library) member libraries are provided access to electronic resources tools and digital downloads of eBooks, audiobooks, videos and music. At the end of 2019, the total holdings of all member libraries was in excess of 13.8 million items. Circulation was over 5 million items during 2019.

DELIVERY SERVICE

RCLS operates a delivery service five days a week, with 204 stops per week. The delivery services transports library materials between and among member libraries, facilitating interlibrary loan between member libraries. Partnering with the neighboring library system expands access to the collections of the 66 libraries in the Mid-Hudson Library System. The delivery service also makes it possible for library users to return materials to any library within the System and have it delivered to the appropriate library. In 2019, RCLS delivered over 3.2 million items.

VALUES

Working with member libraries we accept responsibility for improving service at the local and system level. We are committed:

- to ensuring that people of all ages throughout our service area have equitable access to all library services.
- to providing consolidated services and to work cooperatively with our members to support service excellence at the local level in the most cost effective manner.
- to maintaining a strong, efficient and cost effective organization focused on our members' needs, with a staff team who are innovative, proactive and empowered to respond to member libraries.
