
July Workshops – All are Free, unless otherwise noted

✓ Panel Discussion: Librarians of Color and Diversity in Libraries

Wednesday, July 1 at 10:00 a.m.

Librarianship is not immune to racism. Those who work in librarianship still have to reckon with the racism and lack of diversity that pervades the field. To discuss their experiences being Librarians of Color and what Diversity in Libraries really means, RCLS and the Coalition for Library Workers of Color welcome panelists Richard Ashby, Jr., Sandra Echols, and Taina Solano. This event will take place online. Attendees will receive 1.5 CE credits. Log-in information will be sent that morning.

✓ Mandatory Construction Workshop

Thursday, July 30 from 9:30 a.m. to 4:00 p.m.

This workshop will provide an in-depth discussion on how to prepare a successful New York State Public Library Construction Aid application.

The mandatory morning session (9:30 a.m. – 12:00 p.m.) will delve into the nitty-gritty details of the online application and other requirements. The person directly involved in preparing the application must attend this workshop – no exceptions.

During the optional afternoon session (12:30 p.m. – 4:00 p.m.), participants will complete several required documents together.

Lunch will be provided.

This is a Construction Workshop; participants will receive 2.5 contact hours for attending.
